Test Cases:

Module: Add A Product To Cart

Test Case ID	Scenario	Pre-Requisites	Steps To Perform	Expected Output	Actual Output	Status
TC-001	To verify that a random product can be added to the cart via the product details page by a guest customer	-Website is available and responsive -Product detail page is loaded	1. Go to the product details page 2. Click on Add to Cart button	Product should be successfully added to the cart page by a guest customer	Product is added to the cart	Pass
TC-002	To verify that a random product can be added to the cart via the product details page by a logged-in customer	-Website is available and responsive -Product detail page is loaded	1. Go to product details page 2. Click on Add to Cart button	Product should be successfully added to the cart by a logged-in customer	Product is added to the cart	Pass

The rest of the cases are reduced to headlines:

TC-003: Verify if a correct item count is displayed on the cart icon upon adding the product to the cart

TC-004: Verify if a guest customer can select the product quantity

TC-005: Verify if a logged-in customer can select the product quantity

TC-006: Verify if a customer can update the selected quantity of a product

TC-007: Verify if the menu bar cart icon updates the item count when product quantity changes.

TC-008: Verify if the cart persists after the user logs out and logs back in

TC-009: Verify if a cart table page is being opened successfully by clicking on the cart icon

TC-010: Verify if the correct product is displayed in the cart table

TC-011: Verify if a correct quantity is displayed in the cart table

TC-012: Verify if the product and relevant product information are displayed in the cart table

TC-013: Verify if the total price reflects the selected quantity of the product

TC-014: Verify if the add-to-cart feature is functioning on multiple products

TC-015: Verify by adding the products with different variations to the cart

TC-016: Verify if an item count is updated on the cart icon if multiple products are added to the cart

TC-017: Verify if a product quantity can be updated in the cart table